I Am Malala, Christina Lamb, now tells the inspiring true story of another remarkable young hero: Nujeen Mustafa, a teenager born with cerebral palsy, whose harrowing journey from war-ravaged Syria to Germany in a wheelchair is a breathtaking tale of fortitude, grit, and hope that lends a face to the greatest humanitarian issue of our time, the Syrian refugee crisis. For millions around the globe, sixteen-year-old Nujeen Mustafa embodies the best of the human spirit.

Online Library A Refugees

Confined to a wheelchair because of her cerebral palsy and denied formal schooling in Syria because of her illness, Nujeen taught herself English by watching American soap operas. When her small town became the epicenter of the brutal fight between ISIS militants and US-backed Kurdish troops in 2014, she and her family were forced to flee.

Online Library A Refugees

Despite her physical limitations, Nujeen embarked on the arduous trek to safety and a new life. The grueling sixteen-month odyssey by foot, boat, and bus took her across Turkey and the Mediterranean to Greece, through Macedonia to Serbia and Hungary, and finally, to Germany.

Yet, in spite of the tremendous physical hardship she endured, Nujeen's
extraordinary
optimism never wavered. Refusing to give in to despair or see herself as a
passive victim, she kept her head high.
As she told a BBC
reporter, "You should

fight to get what you want in this world."

Nujeen's positivity
and resolve infuses
this unforgettable
story of one young woman determined
to make a better life for herself. Told by acclaimed British foreign

correspondent
Christina Lamb,
Nujeen is a unique

and powerful memoir
that gives voice to the Syrian refugee crisis, helping us to understand that the world must change—and offering the inspiration to make that change reality.

The refugee crisis
that began in 2015
has seen thousands of refugees attempting to reach Europe, principally from Syria. The dangers and difficulties of this journey have been highlighted in the media, as have the political disagreements within Europe over the way to deal with the problem. However, stages of forced migration, from the conflict in Syria, to refugee camps in Lebanon or Turkey, on the journey to the European Union and on arrival in an EU member state. The book deals with women ' s experiences, the changing nature of gender relations during forced migration, gendered representations of refugees, and the ways in which EU

policies may impact
differently on men and women. The book provides a nuanced and
