Searching for a fun and ready-to-go meeting plan? The resource manual for Pray Your Heart includes seven catechetical sessions and five prayer services that introduce young people to the Psalms through contemporary Christian music. Readings from The Catholic Youth Bible(R) help teens explore the ways that Catholic Christians use the Psalms for inspiration, in private prayer, and in the sacred liturgy. The resource manual's catechetical sessions include icebreakers, various activities, discipleship "challenges," and closing prayers. The companion compact disc contains some of the most outstanding contemporary Christian music available, performed by Oregon Catholic Press's most popular composers for youth. The CD features twelve songs from the hymnbook Spirit and Song: A Seeker's Guide for Liturgy and Prayer, plus four bonus tracks. Each song is based on a particular psalm.

Forty years ago, Toolan composed the words and music of the famous hymn I Am the Bread of Life, performed in 25 languages worldwide. Today, Toolan is one of the most respected writers of religious hymns in the world; the story behind her work sparks creativity in other artists and musicians. (Motivation)

These creative, reassuring and beautiful texts can be sung to well-known hymns and songs in worship, groups, or at home. Many are written for use with children's songs, making them perfect for school, nursery, and camp singing.

The Eucharistic Congress of 1932 established a core of sacred music which was widely used in the liturgy for decades. The visit to Ireland of Pope John Paul II in 1979 provided an opportunity to bring together in one collection some of the liturgical

United Methodist Hymnal and Faith We Sing CDROM

This is the companion volume to My Heart Sings Out, the new collection of hymns, songs, and service music chosen for their particular usefulness in liturgy that is designed intentionally to include children. Intergenerational participation in the liturgy is essential for growing churches. In addition to all of the music from the singer's edition, the Teacher's Guide includes: Brief essays on choosing music and texts appropriate for children; teaching music to children; the importance of a cantor as music leader; and planning worship using the multiple intelligences theory to better engage both children and adults. Suggestions for performance, including additional rhythmic and instrumental parts, ideas for use of multiple voice parts, and ways to make performance simpler or more complex depending on resources. Scriptural and lectionary material, including teaching ideas about understanding the story or theme of the day. Guidelines for planning children's chapel services, and for organizing musical content in church school classes and other special learning events. Musical concerns when teaching, including a breakdown of teaching methods for each piece; points of difficulty, patterns of rhythm or melody, etc. to make the music readily accessible to children and adults. Extensive indexes that list the types of accompanying instrumentation, that categorize selections by age level, that list which selections have harmony parts, that match scripture to texts, plus a liturgical index and a topical index.

This beautiful blend of 620 traditional and new favorite hymns and worship readings will appeal to a wide range of ages, traditions, and ethnicities and will enrich the worship life of the congregation.

(Violin). Lindsay Stirling's version of the modern classic song "Hallelujah" composed by Leonard Cohen is arranged here for violin and piano.
