Winnie Barringer's best friend, Iggie, has moved away. How is Winnie going to make it through summer vacation? Then the Garber family moves into Iggie's House, and Winnie is thrilled. The problem is, not everyone is as welcoming as Winnie.

When an African-American family with three children moves into her white neighborhood, 11-year-old Winnie learns the difference between being a good neighbor and being a good friend. Reissued with a fresh new look and cover art. Simultaneous.

Jill goes along with the rest of the fifth-grade class in tormenting a classmate and then finds out what it is like when she, too, becomes a target. Reissued with a fresh new look and cover art. Simultaneous.

A thirteen-year-old girl seemingly destined for a modeling career finds she has a deformation of the spine called scoliosis.

There is a lot going on in his life that thirteen-year-old Tony Miglione does not really understand--like why his parents suddenly have money enough to buy a house on Long Island, why his mother has changed, why his rich friend Joel shoplifts, why he is obsessed with Joel's sixteen-year-old sister, and why he is having terrible stomach pains.

No one should have to survive adolescence (or adulthood) without Judy Blume. And with this essential boxed set of seven beloved novels, no one has to. The ideal antidote for angst at any age, this boxed set of seven classic Judy Blume books makes a great gift for yourself or someone else. From Margaret and her crisis of faith in Are You There God? It's Me, Margaret to Karen and her coping with her parents' divorce in It's Not the End of the World, the characters of these cherished novels feel like more than characters--they feel like friends. This boxed set includes paperback editions of the following Judy Blume classics: Are You There God? It's Me, Margaret Blubber Deenie Iggie's House It's Not the End of the World Then Again, Maybe I Won't Starring Sally J. Freedman as Herself

When her parents divorce, a sixth grader struggles to understand that sometimes people are unable to live together.

While spending the winter of 1947-1948 in Miami Beach with her family, ten-year-old Sally makes up stories, casts herself in starring roles in movies, and encounters a sinister stranger.

Offers two novels featuring women, men, marriage, divorce, sex, love, identity, and romance.
