The new edition of Judith Dywers best-selling Management text has been updated and mapped to both Certificate IV in Frontline Management and Diploma of Management in the BSB07 Business Services Training Package. Written in plain English, with extensive use of succinct tables, diagrams and a full-colour internal design, this text conveys information to the reader easily and is ideal for visual learners. The text encourages learning with a logical pathway: the theory is presented, the reader is asked to reflect with Ask Yourself questions and then the student is engaged in practical applications with Apply Your Knowledge sections. This is an invaluable teaching tool for all management students and lecturers in the VET sector. Scope Management Strategies and Skills, 2e is mapped to both Certificate IV in Frontline Management and Diploma of Management in the BSB07 Business Services Training Package.

Kris Cole throws light on the gap between theory and practice in the 5th edition of Management - Theory and Practice. She explains management theory in everyday language, and puts it in a context that makes it easy to understand. This resource will help you develop the vocabulary you need to communicate effectively with colleagues and equips you with models and frameworks to tackle management challenges. In addition it will enable you to strengthen your 'hard skills', like managing poor performance, being more directive and solving problems permanently.

Combines the techniques of fiction and nonfiction in order to tell the story of the love between Susette Gontard ("Diotima") and the poet Friedrich Holderlin.

How do we account for the explosion of demonic activity in the New Testament? Archie T. Wright examines the trajectory of the origin of evil spirits in early Jewish literature. His work traces the development of the concept of evil spirits from the Hebrew Bible (Genesis 6) through post-biblical Jewish literature. "I would in fact recommend this book, not because of the answers it gives, but the questions it raises." -- Philip R. Davies in Journal of Semitic Studies 55 (2010) "This work is marked by several strengths. First, Wright shows an impressive command of the primary and secondary literature. Second, this writer appreciates Wright's tendency to express cautious conclusions regarding historical and source-critical matters. These qualities are especially helpful in a work dealing with the reception history of a given text. Third, Wright has an extremely helpful discussion of the identity of the nephilim of Gen. 6:4 (80-83)." -- Mark D. Owens in Faith & Mission 24 (2007), pp. 68-70
