This book examines the nature and character of naval expeditionary warfare, reluctant to engage large land forces because of the high human and economic costs. Instead, they rely as much as possible on sea and air power, and the latter is most often in the form of carrier-based aviation. In order to exert pressure on their enemies, they have often opened additional theaters in on-going,

regional, and civil wars.
This book contains thirteen case studies by some of the foremost naval historians and security studies.

"The scenes of this novel are laid in California. The heroine, to please her mother and to be relieved whom she does not love. She becomes infatuated with Vandell, a scoundrel, and is on the point of eloping with him when the plans are interfered with by Saint Desmond, a minister of
