Top Secret Mission: The President suspends the laws of war. Use any means necessary to kill Hitlers greatest commando, Otto Skorzeny. Skorzeny and a company of Nazi SS soldiers have been transported back in time by Red China, tasked with murdering George Washington and assassinating the Founding Fathers. Green Beret Colonel Bob Lake, two Marine snipers, a beautiful intelligence expert, a Navy SEAL and an eccentric professor transport to Fort Duquesne and the bloody French & Indian War. The hunt for the most dangerous Nazi commando in history begins. If Skorzeny succeeds, the Thirteen Colonies will never unite as a country. 20th Century Germany will win WW I and China will emerge as the sole superpower of the 21st Century. Lake doggedly pursues the brilliant Colonel Skorzeny and his SS storm troopers through the colonial period and across the American wilderness, desperate to save the American Revolution. Through it all, deadly Indians threaten both the Nazis and the American commandos.

Forty years ago, managerialism dominated corporate governance. In both theory and practice, a team of senior managers ran the corporation with little or no interference from other stakeholders. Shareholders were essentially powerless and typically quiescent. Boards of directors were little more than rubber stamps. Today, the corporate governance landscape looks vastly different. The fall-out from the post-Enron scandal and implementation of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act have resulted in shareholder activism becoming more widespread, while many observers call for even greater empowerment. The New Corporate Governance in Theory and Practice offers an interdisciplinary analysis of the emerging board-centered system of corporate governance. It draws on doctrinal legal analysis, behavioral
