matched up with Rule #0 Manage Yourself. It's a common and often repeated story. You take a rock star Sales Engineer who is highly valued for their sales and business skills - and make them a manager because they are a great SE. With no regard for their possible leadership skills whatsoever. Perhaps they are pointed at a few online HR resources and take a mandatory "Managing Within The Law" session. Then they are released into the wild, and asked to manage, lead and motivate a team of Sales Engineers - each of whom performs the job differently than the newly minted manager used to do.
