"The Lord has shown me that Satan was once an honored angel in heaven, next to Jesus Christ. His countenance was mild, expressive of happiness like the other angels. His forehead was high and broad, and showed great intelligence. His form was perfect. He had noble, majestic bearing. And I saw that when God said to his Son, Let us make man in our image, Satan was jealous of Jesus. He wished to be consulted concerning the formation of man. He was filled with envy, jealousy and hatred. He wished to be the highest in heaven, next to God, and receive the highest honors. Until this time all heaven was in order, harmony and perfect subjection to the government of God."-Ellen G White

What scripture says about 28 central topics of Christianity.

This completely new typeset of the monumental 1957 classic contains an extensive historical and theological introduction and detailed notations by George R. Knight, professor of church history at Andrews University.; Originally produced by the Ministerial Association of the General Conference of SDAs, Questions on Doctrine was widely acclaimed and heavily distributed in the late 1950s and early 1960s as a forthright answer to questions from evangelicals about key elements of Adventist doctrine. Controversy regarding the book's position on the nature of Christ and the atonement soon stopped its circulation.; Intended as a complete reference on the book itself, this new edition faithfully reproduces the original text of Questions on Doctrine, with in-text indicators of the original pagings. It includes later important documents that bring the work up to date. The original bibliography is followed by an updated selected bibliography. Commentary on various historical or bibliographic topics is included in new footnotes throughout the text, all while preserving the reading integrity of the original edition.; George Knight's introductory essays provide the background for how the book came about and describe the interaction of the principal players involved in the dispute about a small section of content that shelved this classic work for more than a generation.; This new edition of Question on Doctrine beautifully preserves this outstanding and winsome work of Adventist apologetics to future generations of scholars, laypersons, and critics. It is an essential element of every Adventist library.

Beginning with the destruction of Jerusalem and continuing through the persecutions of Christians in the Roman Empire, the apostasy of the Dark Ages, the shining light of the Reformation, and the worldwide religious awakening of the nineteenth century, this volume traces the conflict into the future, to the Second Coming of Jesus and the glories of the earth made new. In this concluding volume, the author powerfully points out the principles involved in the impending conflict and how each person can stand firmly for God and His truth.
