Among the major professions, certified public accountancy has the most severe underrepresentation of African Americans: less than 1 percent of CPAs are black. Theresa Hammond explores the history behind this statistic and chronicles the courage and determination of African Americans who sought to enter the field. In the process, she expands our understanding of the links between race, education, and economics. Drawing on interviews with pioneering black CPAs, among other sources, Hammond sets the stories of black CPAs against the backdrop of the rise of accountancy as a profession, the particular challenges that African Americans trying to enter the field faced, and the strategies that enabled some blacks to become CPAs. Prior to the 1960s, few white-owned accounting firms employed African Americans. Only through nationwide networks established by the first black CPAs did more African Americans gain the requisite professional experience. The civil rights era saw some progress in integrating the field, and black colleges responded by expanding their programs in business and accounting. In the 1980s, however, the backlash against affirmative action heralded the decline of African American participation in accountancy and paved the way for the astonishing lack of diversity that characterizes the field today.

THE FIRST MEMOIR BY A USS ARIZONA SURVIVOR: Donald Stratton, one of the battleship's five living heroes, delivers a "powerful" and "intimate"* eyewitness account of Pearl Harbor and his unforgettable return to the fight At 8:10 a.m. on December 7, 1941, Seaman First Class Donald Stratton was consumed by an inferno. A million pounds of explosives had detonated beneath his battle station aboard the USS Arizona, barely fifteen minutes into Japan's surprise attack on American forces at Pearl Harbor. Near death and burned across two thirds of his body, Don, a nineteen-year-old Nebraskan who had been steeled by the Great Depression and Dust Bowl, summoned the will to haul himself hand over hand across a rope tethered to a neighboring vessel. Forty-five feet below, the harbor's flaming, oil-slick water boiled with enemy bullets; all around him the world tore itself apart. In this extraordinary, never-before-told eyewitness account of the Pearl Harbor attack—the only memoir ever written by a survivor of the USS Arizona—ninety-four-year-old veteran Donald Stratton finally shares his unforgettable personal tale of bravery and survival on December 7, 1941, his harrowing recovery, and his inspiring determination to return to the fight. Don and four other sailors made it safely across the same line that morning, a small miracle on a day that claimed the lives of 1,177 of their Arizona shipmates—approximately half the American fatalities at Pearl Harbor. Sent to military hospitals for a year, Don refused doctors' advice to amputate his limbs and battled to relearn how to walk. The U.S. Navy gave him a medical discharge, believing he would never again be fit for service, but Don had unfinished business. In June 1944, he sailed back into the teeth of the Pacific War on a destroyer, destined for combat in the crucial battles of Leyte Gulf, Luzon, and Okinawa, thus earning the distinction of having been present for the opening shots and the final major battle of America's Second World War. As the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Pearl Harbor attack approaches, Don, a great-grandfather of five and one of six living survivors of the Arizona, offers an unprecedentedly intimate reflection on the tragedy that drew America into the greatest armed conflict in history. All the Gallant Men is a book for the ages, one of the most remarkable—and remarkably inspiring—memoirs of any kind to appear in recent years. *Library Journal

JJ THE CPA HERE! Learn how to gain massive referrals for any business by first mastering the art of this with the Certified Public Accountant... the CPA. Referrals do what? Put easy money in your pocket, am I right? Of course I am or you wouldn't still be reading this. Hey, guess what? I am THE CPA and in this book I am going to let you enter my mind so you can unlock the sequence of receiving any referral and become a master at CRACKING THE REFERRAL CODE. Question for you: Want to make a living over your career or millions? Yes? Good! I won't let you down. Stay with me... True or false? If you learn to CRACK THE CPA CODE, and gain referrals from the CPA, then you can gain referrals from anyone? TRUE! You bet your bottom dollar that's true. Follow me here, and see if you agree... The CPA is the hardest nut to crack to get referrals from? If you agree that means you are very successful because you've experienced it. I am going to throw this down though. If you don't have a referring relationship with a CPA, no way you are as successful as you could be with the CPA actually in your corner. Let me put my money where my mouth is and tell you my practice is literally worth over $10 million in referrals, and I am small CPA firm. Let's get down to brass tax. Through this process of you learning to CRACK THE CPA CODE, you will not only learn how to successfully gain referrals from one of the most revered professionals in the business world, you will be become a magnet to other professionals you wish to do business with because.... you will be known as trusted professional by the CPA. Know why that is key? That leads to you being seen as a trusted adviser as well. How? Why? Let's think on this. You being trusted by the CPA sends the flare-up to all your allies, competitors and peers, that you are someone who is trustworthy! And you know this. What does anyone require of you, to refer their clients to you? My late Grandfather told me this. Trust! Someone must trust you before they refer anyone or anything your way. Why? When you receive a referral you now represent, in part, the person that sent you the referral. If you are known, which you will be after reading my book, as being a trusted professional by the CPA, you will have achieved what many of your peers and competitors never have which is being welcomed aboard the battleship with the CPA; the most trusted professional in the world. Want an easy combination to remember? WWWWWH. Here is another, ABC, 1-2-3, KISS. Follow the dots on the road map I share with you, and I will lead you to the promise land. Remember, what I told you in the beginning that you are going to hear what is going on inside the CPA's head, so you are going to gain some unfair advantages with your opponent as I also reveal the warning signs to look for and dangers to remove to ensure your sweet deal closes. Know what "professional skepticism is?" Know why CPAs can come across awkward? Know how to learn from deflectors like sarcasm and turn that into an ace in your pocket? Well, I am giving you the playbook on knowing what to look for and more importantly what to expect so that you will move smoothly through unlocking millions for you and your company, and CRACKING THE CPA CODE. Buckle up my friend! THANK YOU FOR READING the description of my book. I also hold workshops to walk you through your specific land mine, to CRACK THE REFERRING CODE with your specific industry and business. Giddy up!
