When Sheikh Kamal first saw Erin from across the ballroom he knew he must have her - and he always got what he wanted. But Erin was unlike any other woman he had ever met. Even for an American she is exceptionally feisty, strong and stubbornly independent. A challenge to him. Yet he can't keep his eyes off her, her stunning beauty kept him captivated for the whole evening. When Erin first saw Sheikh Kamal she had no idea he was royalty and leader of Jawhara, one of the largest (and wealthiest) countries in the Middle East. She just saw him as an irresistible handsome man - tall, with deep brown eyes and a muscular physique. Definitely her type. He was perfect - apart from his personality. He was so arrogant, controlling, and dominating. Everything she told herself she NEVER wanted in a man. Yet, she feels such a strong pull towards him, even his scent is intoxicating. They sneak away from the ball and go back to Erin's apartment where they share an intense night of love making. In the morning Kamal is called urgently back to his country. As the weeks go by, and the gifts from Kamal pile up, Erin makes a shocking discovery. She is carrying the heir to a kingdom... When Kamal discovers this, he will do anything to bring her to his country and make her his bride. But Erin has other ideas.

Does love solve all? Shiekh Rameez Molamid doesn't believe in love. He only cares about looking out for his interests, and after winning Muharraq Island from the Khalidzack brothers in the wedding bet, he's certainly proven that he can trust his instincts. But when a feud threatens to tear his family apart, he has to do what he can to make peace for the sake of his elderly mother. Wynifred Fellows, author of the upcoming book Love Solves All, is brought in to heal the rift within the family. The last thing she expects is to feel a spark of mutual attraction for the handsome bachelor Rameez. With her publisher turning up the pressure, she really needs a win. But when Rameez and his cousin Haris begin competing for her attention, the feud—and the bedroom—start to heat up. With tensions at a fever pitch, Wynifred knows the only logical thing is to force a confrontation, so she "strands" the three of them on Muharraq Island. What she doesn't know is that dangerous art collector Anton Negatin is waiting to get his hands on the island, by any means necessary—even murder.

Work always comes first for Sheikh Nassir Adjalane. From an early age, he learned business was infinitely more important than having a personal life. But with the pressure from an opponent on his board, Nassir suddenly has only one month to marry, or risk being voted out of his company. With everything he's working on the line, Nassir desperately needs a bride ... and only one woman will do it. Wedding planner Janna Davis never imagined she would be summoned to Middle East to plan Sheikh Nassir's nuptials. But the outrageous sum he's offered will finally give her what she needs to stand on her own two feet. As planning gets underway, Janna is put off by Nassir's businesslike way, but she can not deny his appeal. No matter what she's feeling though, Janna has a job to do. Janna values her independence and refuses to fall for a soon-to-be married man, but what will happen when she learns that she is Nassir's intended bride?

For Tanya May, her trip to Saudi Arabia is supposed to be the perfect getaway from work, stress, and most importantly, men. She can't wait to relax and see the sights, but with best friend Rene unavailable, there's only one person left to show her a good time: unrepentant player James Tazeem. From the moment they meet, she's tempted by every inch of his towering height. As head of the Tazeem Spice Company, the deal Sheikh Hussain has on the horizon could net him millions. Now he needs an assistant, but he certainly wasn't expecting someone like Cassie Milton. She defies him at every turn with her courage, intelligence, and playful attitude. Her lush curves and golden eyes present a sinful temptation, but he needs to focus on what's important. He can't afford to be caught off guard by an American woman who claims to have no knowledge of her past. A bump on the head leaves Cassie with no memory of who she is or why she is in the Middle East. Luckily, salvation comes in a tall, muscular, irresistible package. When Sheikh Hussain Tazeem puts her to work, she has access to his business deals and all the luxury his billions can buy, but it's pushing his buttons that's giving her the biggest thrill. He's easily the most uptight man she's ever met. Yet, the more she's drawn to his dark eyes and silent strength, the more she knows there's something she needs to remember... But what? With their attraction building and millions of dollars on the line, the stakes are high for Cassie and Hussain. But as Cassie's memory begins to resurface, the truth could jeopardize everything.

None of the Hasan brothers are looking for love or marriage, but all three find themselves tying the knot with virtual strangers in Leslie North's latest smoldering sheikh trilogy. In The Sheikh's Marriage Bargain, as the eldest son, Zayid Hasan must marry first and since his younger brother needs to wed, he's willing to enter a marriage of convenience to solve that problem. He's lucky he meets Laila Tindall, who's just desperate enough to marry him, but will their temporary marriage turn into something more lasting? One night of passion between middle brother Yaseen and American Kara Shaw leads to a pregnancy, and under his kingdom's laws the two must marry. It's a marriage of convenience and nothing more... at least that's what they keep telling themselves, in The Sheikh's Pregnant Wife. In The Sheikh's Rescued Baby, youngest Hasan brother, Nadim, wants to change his playboy image, but marriage wasn't part of the plan, even to Aisha Shadari, the gorgeous sultana of a neighboring kingdom. When disaster strikes, they both discover there's more to him than meets the eye.

Avery Caldwell will do anything to save her younger brother from the violent world of fighting. Only one thing stands in her way: renowned fighter Mason Burton. Avery already lost one brother to fighting and she's determined to save the other. All she has to do is persuade his trainer, superstar Mason Burton, to talk her baby brother out of the ring. She wasn't counting on Mason being the tallest, strongest, sexiest man she's ever seen, but that won't change her mind. She'll just have to ignore her unexpected feelings for the charming fighter and do what she came to do. Mason's used to women lining up for him at the side of the ring, but one look at Dustin Caldwell's overprotective sister is all it takes for him to fall hard. With long blond hair and the face of an angel, she's the most beautiful woman he's ever seen. He knows she hates everything about fighting, but Mason refuses to tap out. With her stubborn determination, it won't be easy proving that the circuit isn't as dangerous as she fears. But convincing her to fall for a fighter may just be the fight of a lifetime.
