Allama Iqbal (November 9, 1877 - April 21, 1938), widely known as Muhammad Iqbal, was a poet, philosopher, and politician, as well as an academic, barrister and scholar in British India who is widely regarded as having inspired the Pakistan Movement. He is called the "Spiritual Father of Pakistan" He is considered one of the most important figures in Urdu literature, with literary work in both Urdu and Persian.
On the political thoughts of Sir Muhammad Iqbal, 1877-1938, Urdu and Persian poet.

The Reconstruction of Religious Thought in Islam (1930) is Muhammad Iqbal's major philosophic work: a series of profound reflections on the perennial conflict among science, religion, and philosophy, culminating in new visions of the unity of human knowledge, of the human spirit, and of God. Iqbal's thought contributed significantly to the establishment of Pakistan, to the religious and political ideals of the Iranian Revolution, and to the survival of Muslim identity in parts of the former USSR. It now serves as new bridge between East and West and between Islam and the other Religions of the Book. With a new Introduction by Javed Majeed, this edition of The Reconstruction opens the teachings of Iqbal to the modern, Western reader. It will be essential reading for all those interested in Islamic intellectual history, the renewal of Islam in the modern world, and political theory of Islam's relationship to the West.
Sir Muhammad Iqbal, 1877-1938, Urdu poet and philosopher.

Study of the correspondences, prose works, and speeches of Sir Muhammad Iqbal, 1877-1938, Urdu poet and nationalis; includes transcript of correspondences.
Allama Mohammad Iqbal, whom Sarojini Naidu called the ' Poet laureate of Asia ', remains a controversial figure in the history of the Indian subcontinent. On the one hand, he is considered the ' Spiritual Father of Pakistan '. On the other, his message of Eastern revivalism places him in the ranks of the twentieth century ' s major intellectuals. Iqbal ' s tragedy was that after his death, he was made the national poet of Pakistan and largely ignored in India. In his time, he was lauded as much as Tagore, but today India celebrates Tagore while Iqbal has been banished from her consciousness. This meticulously researched biography will redress that erasure. This is the story of Iqbal ' s evolution as a poet, philosopher and politician. While his role in the struggle for India ' s freedom and the Pakistan movement are well known, not much is known about his personal life. This book highlights some of the least known facets of the poet ' s life: how did a nationalist poet transform into a poet of Islamic revivalism and global revolution? How did three years in Europe change Iqbal ' s political and philosophical outlook? Why did he start writing in Persian during his stay in Europe? Why did his first marriage fail and how did his romantic relationships affect him? What exactly was the poet ' s role in bringing about Partition? Written with the passion of an ardent devotee, Zafar Anjum ' s Iqbal answers all of these questions—and many more—in this carefully told biography.

The letters which form the subject of this booklet were written to me by the sage, Philosopher and National Poet of Islam, the late Dr. Sir Muhammad Iqbal, during the period May 1936 to November 1037, a few months before his death.This period synchronizes with a very eventful period in the history of Muslim India between the establishment of the All-India Muslim League Central Parliamentary Board in June 1936 and the great historic sessions at Lucknow in October 1937.If the Central Parliamentary Board with its Provincial Branches marked the first great attempt on the part of the Muslim League to rally round the Muslim opinion to contest the approaching elections, under the Government Of India Act of 1935, for Provincial Legislature on the League ticket, the Lucknow Session indicated the first stage in the reorganization of the Muslim League on a popular basis and as the only authoritative and representative organization of Muslim India. Both these high objects were attained in great part owing to the invaluable support that I obtained through the sincere efforts and patriotic and selfless activities of many friends like Sir Muhammad Iqbal, amongst others. The League gained from strength to strength in this short period. In each of the Provinces where League Parliamentary Board was established and the League parties were constituted we carried away about 60 to 70 percent of the seats that were contested by the League candidates. Hundreds of District and Primary Leagues were established in almost every Province from the farthest corner of Madras to the North-West Frontier Province.The League gave a staggering blow to the so-called Muslim Mass Contact Movement which was started by the Congress to disrupt Muslim ranks and to overawe League into submission. The League emerged triumphant in most of the by-election and shattered the intrigues and machinations of those who hoped to create the impression that the Muslim League Organization had no support of the Muslim people.Within eighteen months before the Lucknow Sessions, the League had succeeded in organizing Muslims as one party with an advanced and progressive programme and had brought under its influence even those Provinces which for lack of time or preparation had not been sufficiently benefited by the activities of League Parliamentary Boards. The Lucknow Sessions furnished an unmistakable evidence of the popularity that League commanded among Muslims of all groups and ranks.It was a great achievement for Muslim League that its lead came to be acknowledged by both the majority and minority Provinces. Sir Muhammad Iqbal played a very conspicuous part, though at the time not revealed to public, in bringing about this consummation. He had his own doubts about Sikandar-Jinnah Pact being carried out and he was anxious to see it translated into some tangible results without delay so as to dispel popular misapprehension about it, but unfortunately he has not lived to see that the Punjab has all round made a remarkable progress and now it is beyond doubt that the Muslims stand solidly behind the Muslim League Organization.
